74% of Millennials support legal recognition of marriage for gay and lesbian couples.

Over two-thirds (67%) of Millennials of color support some form of legal recognition of gay couples — either legal marriage (48%) or civil unions (19%).

58% of African-American youth, 70% of Latino youth and 76% of Asian Pacific-Islander youth agree that same-sex couples should receive legal recognition.