1. Identify various reasons why teens choose to engage or not engage in various sexual behaviors [Knowledge]
2. Analyze personal factors that are important to consider when making decisions about sex. [Knowledge]
3. Articulate a message that clearly identifies where they stand on engaging in sexual behavior with a partner at this time in their lives. [Knowledge]

A NOTE ABOUT LANGUAGE:

Language is really important and we've intentionally been very careful about our language throughout this curriculum. You may notice language throughout the curriculum that seems less familiar - using the pronoun “they” instead of “her” or “him” and using gender neutral labels such as person and partners rather than boyfriend or girlfriend. The scenarios and role-plays feature a variety of genders and orientations. This is intended to make the curriculum inclusive of all genders and gender identities and to recognize that a person of any gender can be in an unhealthy relationship.

PROCEDURE:

STEP 1: Introduce the lesson by asking, “Has anyone ever struggled to make a really tough decision?” After a few students have raised their hand go on to ask, “Has anyone ever made a really tough decision and even after you made the decision you weren't 100% sure it was the right one?” Go on to explain that, “Making decisions can be difficult and making decisions about sex can be even more difficult since everyone has different values and beliefs about this topic. That is what we're going to talk about today.” (2 minutes)

STEP 2: Ask students, “When do you think someone is ready to have sex - either oral, vaginal or anal – with their partner?” Take a few responses and ask, “What would have to be in place with their relationship?” Take a few responses and lastly ask, “What kinds of questions should young people ask themselves before taking that step?”

Take a few responses and then distribute the handout “Sexual Readiness” to each student. Ask for a few volunteers to read some of the questions in the handout aloud. Then ask students to turn around and talk with someone they are seated near about their reactions to the handout. Give the students five minutes to discuss and when time is up, process the activity by asking the following questions:

- What was it like to do that? What was [easy, surprising, interesting—fill in answers] about it?
- Which questions do you think are most important to talk about with a partner? Which are least?
- Which questions surprised you?
- Any questions you think are missing?
- How do you think it would be for a couple to talk through all these questions?
(10 minutes)

STEP 3: Explain that next students will do some role-playing to practice making healthy decisions about sexual behavior. Remind students that in general healthy relationships are:

- Consensual and non-exploitative
- Concerned about consequences such as STDs and pregnancy
- Respectful and caring

Then explain, “The class will be divided into five teams. Each team will get a scenario involving a couple that is making a decision about sex. Each group should read and discuss their scenario and then write a realistic and respectful dialog between the characters so the couple reaches a decision quickly. Groups will have five minutes to prepare your dialog and then you’ll have the opportunity to present it to the class.

Divide the class into five groups and give each group a different scenario. Circulate among the groups while they are working offering support as needed. After five minutes, gather students’ attention and ask if there are any volunteers to read their dialog. If a group doesn’t want to read, you or another student could volunteer to read it. Then the class will answer the following questions based on the scenario.

Note to the Teacher: Some of your students may choose to act them out, but never require this as it will put them in an awkward and potentially traumatic situation with each other. If a student in your class shares the name of a student in the scenario, please change the name in the scenario. This could potentially be embarrassing for a student.

Have these questions written on the board

- 1) What are the possible consequences for this couple if they follow through with their decision?
- 2) Do you think they made a healthy decision? Why or why not?

After the class answers these two questions, the next group will present their scenario and follow the same process. Follow the process described for scenarios 1-5. (23 minutes)

STEP 4: Process the entire activity by asking:

- How realistic were the consequences the class predicted?
- What would you advise these characters to do?

(5 minutes)

STEP 5: In closing, remind the class of the following take-home points, “It’s important for each of you to figure out where you stand about decisions regarding sex so you can not only be clear for yourself but also find ways to be clear with any future partners.” Thank class for their hard work and close lesson. (2 minutes)

RECOMMENDED ASSESSMENT OF LEARNING OBJECTIVES AT CONCLUSION OF LESSON:

The initial discussion meets the first and second learning objective while the scenarios fulfill the third learning objective.

HOMEWORK:

None.

Handout: Sexual Readiness

Here are some questions to answer before making a decision to have sex with a partner:

- 1) How do I feel about sex? When do I think it would be right for me? Under what conditions and with what kind of person?
- 2) How does the other person feel? How do their feelings fit in with my own?
- 3) Is there any chance that I'm pressuring or exploiting the other person? Could they be pressuring or exploiting me?
- 4) What do I expect sex to be like? What if it's bad and I don't enjoy it? How would I feel about myself or my partner?
- 5) How would my partner and I feel if others found out about our sexual relationship, specifically those very close to me?
- 6) Do I trust my partner? Completely?
- 7) Am I comfortable being vulnerable in front of my partner, for example being naked with them?
- 8) What if this turns into a strictly sexual relationship and that's all we ever do? How would I feel then?
- 9) What extra pressures might I (or we) feel once we have sex?
- 10) How will I feel if we break up?
- 11) What will I do to prevent STDs?
- 12) What would I do if I got an STD?
- 13) If it's a risk, what will we do to prevent pregnancy?
- 14) What would I do if a pregnancy resulted from having vaginal sex? How would my partner and I feel?
- 15) How would my family feel if they found out about my sexual relationship? How would I feel about their knowing?

If you cannot answer all of these questions with confidence, maybe you aren't ready for sex yet. Make the decision that is best for you, not based on pressure by others.

Freeze Frame Role-Play Scenario 1

Hannah and Jonathan

Hannah and Jonathan have been together for about six months. They have a good relationship but only get to see each other about once a month, because Jonathan just moved to a town about an hour away from Hannah. Since his move, Hannah has begun to hint that she's ready to have sex. Plan a role-play in which Jonathan talks with Hannah about having sex and they make a decision.

Hannah: You like Jonathan a lot and you're glad that he doesn't pressure you about sex. Still, you've decided to go ahead and have sex with him because it might make the relationship stronger, now that he's moved away.

Jonathan: You're crazy about Hannah but don't think things will work out now that you live in two different places. You want to be honest with Hannah and don't want to mislead or hurt her. Recently, Hannah has hinted that she's ready to have sex, but you're wondering if she's just trying to hold onto the relationship. Talk with Hannah about what you're sensing.

Freeze Frame Role-Play Scenario 2

Morgan and Terence

Morgan and Terence met several months ago at a party. Morgan identifies as queer and is very active in the LGBTQ group at his school. Terence isn't sure whether he's straight or bisexual and has only dated girls. But both Morgan and Terence know they are attracted to each other. Plan a role-play in which Morgan talks to Terence about what's going on and they make a decision about whether to have sex.

Morgan: You and Terence live in the same apartment building and are in the same homeroom. Terence has dated girls and seems straight, but he also seems attracted to you. Last week, you bumped into him in the laundry room in your building and after a lot of "accidental touches" you ended up kissing. But then he stopped and left. Now he just sent a text asking if you'd meet him in the laundry room. You decide to go because you want to have an honest conversation. You don't want to begin anything with someone who is so confused.

Terence: You date girls you like, but haven't done much sexually with them; you've kissed a couple of them, but didn't find it very exciting. Now you feel very attracted to Morgan. When you kissed him last week, it felt wonderful, but also confusing. You just can't stop thinking about Morgan and imagining his touch. You think you want to have sex with him, but you don't want your family or friends to find out, because they would disapprove.

Freeze Frame Role-Play Scenario 3

Graham and Marina

Marina and Graham have been going out for four months. Marina's family immigrated from Russia five years ago. Marina speaks English well, thinks of herself as American, and argues constantly with her parents about many of their beliefs, which she finds old-fashioned.

Graham and Marina are crazy about each other. Plan a role-play in which Graham talks with Marina about having sex and they make a decision.

Graham: You feel lucky to have Marina as your girlfriend. She is beautiful and so nice to you. You like the fact that you come from different cultural backgrounds. You love touching Marina and want to have vaginal sex with her. You want to do it right, though. You want to go with her to get birth control and you plan to use a condom too.

Marina: You've in heaven because Graham is such a nice, caring and sensitive guy. He's the first American you've ever dated, but your parents don't like him. They don't want you dating at all. When you and Graham kiss and touch each other, it feels great. You want to have sex, but you've always told yourself and your parents that you would wait until you were married to have sex.

Freeze Frame Role-Play Scenario 4

Andie and Diana

Andie and Diana are two girls who just met last weekend at a party. They had fun together, and now they've hooked up again this weekend. They're alone in Andie's basement. Plan a role-play in which Diana asks Andie about having sex and they make a decision.

Diana: You think Andie is a lot of fun and really cute. You're not interested in a relationship. You know that you're both really turned on. You decided some time ago that you weren't ready for oral sex, so you know that's off-limits for you. But you can think of a lot of other wonderful things that you and Andie can do to express your feelings for each other. Talk it over with Andie.

Andie: You think Diana is great and feel that this could be the relationship you've always wanted. You've never felt like this before and don't want to do anything to turn Diana off. You feel open to all kinds of things with Diana, including commitment and sex. You plan to use protection if you and Diana decide to have sex.

Freeze Frame Role-Play Scenario 5

Sydney and Zee

Sydney is a trans girl who has a big crush on Zee. Both are free thinkers who don't like labels. Sydney and Zee have been hanging out together for a few weeks and enjoy a lot of the same things. It's clear that they're attracted to each other, but they've never kissed or touched. Plan a role-play in which Sydney talks with Zee about having sex and they make a decision.

Sydney: You were assigned male at birth but have never identified as a boy or a man. You are a girl, but not a "girly" girl. You really like the fact that Zee is kind of androgynous, but you aren't sure how to get things started. You decide that the two of you should talk about your feelings.

Zee: Biologically you were assigned female at birth but you hate all of the boxes that society puts people in and identify as genderqueer. You work hard to have a gender-nonconforming appearance and style. You enjoy gender-bending and you feel like with Sydney you have finally met someone who really "gets you".
